

Minor in Recreation Administration

Students that minor in Recreation Administration will complete coursework that provides background and understanding required to work with people during their leisure time and/or as they participate in recreation activities. The minor is especially suitable for students majoring in degrees that emphasize human service delivery or that pursue the Bachelor of General Studies Degree. The six required and twelve elective hours allow each student to focus on coursework that has relevance to future employment opportunities when combined with a related major or minors

SCHOOL OF APPLIED SCIENCES
MINOR IN RECREATION ADMINISTRATION
DEPARTMENT OF HESRM
Total Coursework (18 hours)

Required Courses (6 hours)

	Grade
RA 194: Foundations of Leisure and Recreation	(3) _____
RA 200: Park and Recreation Programs Leadership	(3) _____

Elective Courses (12 hours)

RA 262: Recreation for Persons w/Disabilities	(3) _____
¹ RA 301: Planning & Evaluation in PRM	(3) _____
¹ RA 302: Program Planning & Development	(3) _____
¹ RA 332: Outdoor Recreation	(3) _____
RA 371: Camp Leadership	(3) _____
¹² RA 372: Procedures and Techniques in Therapeutic	(3) _____
¹ RA 375: Recreational Sport Programming	(3) _____
RA 380: Current Issues in Travel & Tourism Mgmt.	(3) _____
² RA 388: Assessment & Planning in TR	(3) _____
¹² RA 425: Design and Maintenance of Facilities	(3) _____
¹² RA 471: Admin. of Park & Recreation Programs	(3) _____
¹² RA 473: Supervision and Administration of Therapy	(3) _____
² RA 490: Independent Study	(3) _____
² RA 510: Entrepreneurial Recreation	(3) _____
² RA 539: Outdoor Resources Management	(3) _____
² RA 569: Strategies & Applications in Outdoor Edu	(3) _____
² RA 574: Current Trends in Therapeutic Recreation	(3) _____

¹ Requires at least a "C" grade in RA 194 or RA 200

² Requires appropriate pre-requisite and permission of RA Coordinator

Suggested Minors to pursue along with a Minor in Recreation Administration for students majoring in General Studies.

Minor	Minor 2	Minor 3	Job Possibilities
Recreation Administration	Business Administration	Journalism	Sport Information, Commercial recreation, Travel and Tourism
Recreation Administration	Journalism	English	Sport Reporting, Travel and Tourism, Public Relations,
Recreation Administration	Environmental Studies	Biological Science or Geology	Park Interpretation, Fish and Wildlife, Park Administration, Conservation
Recreation Administration	Public Policy Leadership	Economics	Park and Recreation Administration, Governmental Recreation,
Recreation Administration	International Studies	Spanish (or other modern language)	International recreation and tourism
Recreation Administration	Southern Studies	Environmental Studies	Park Interpretation, National Park Service
Recreation Administration	Military Science and Leadership	Business Administration	Morale, Welfare and Recreation (military Rec)
Recreation Administration	Entrepreneurship	Business Administration	Commercial Recreation, Recreation Business Ownership
Recreation Administration	Sociology	Anthropology	Interpretation, Inner-city Recreation

Minor in Recreation Administration

The minor in Park and Recreation Management is ideal for students pursuing professions which require working with people during their leisure time and programming their recreation pursuits. The minor is especially suitable for students majoring in associated degrees that emphasize major components of human service delivery or that pursue the Bachelor of General Studies Degree. The nine elective hours allow each student to focus on coursework that has relevance to future employment opportunities when combined with a related major or minors.

SCHOOL OF APPLIED SCIENCES
MINOR IN PARK AND RECREATION MANAGEMENT
DEPARTMENT OF HESRM

Total Recreation Coursework (18 hours)

Required Courses (9 hours)

	Grade
¹ PRM 194: Foundations of Leisure and Recreation	(3) _____
¹ PRM 200: Parks and Recreation Programs Leadership	(3) _____
³ PRM 262: Recreation for Persons w/Disabilities or
¹² PRM 332: Outdoor Recreation	(3) _____

Elective Courses (9 hours)

³ PRM 262: Recreation for Persons w/Disabilities	(3) _____
² PRM 301: Planning & Evaluation in PRM	(3) _____
² PRM 302: Program Planning & Development	(3) _____
¹² PRM 332: Outdoor Recreation	(3) _____
¹ PRM 371: Camp Leadership	(3) _____
¹²³ PRM 372: Procedures and Techniques in Therapeutic	(3) _____
¹² PRM 375: Recreational Sport Programming	(3) _____
¹ PRM 380: Current Issues in Travel & Tourism Mgmt.	(3) _____
³² PRM 425: Design and Maintenance of Facilities	(3) _____
³² PRM 471: Admin. of Park & Recreation Programs	(3) _____
³ PRM 473: Supervision and Administration of Therapy	(3) _____
³ PRM 490: Independent Study	(3) _____
³ PRM 510: Entrepreneurial Recreation	(3) _____
³ PRM 539: Outdoor Resources Management	(3) _____
³ PRM 569: Strategies & Applications in Outdoor Edu	(3) _____
³ PRM 574: Current Trends in Therapeutic Recreation	(3) _____

¹On-line or Independent Study

²Requires at least a "C" grade in PRM 194 or PRM 200

³Requires appropriate pre-requisite and/or permission of PRM Coordinator

Suggested Minors to pursue along with P&R Management

Minor	Minor 2	Minor 3	Job Possibilities
Park and Recreation	Business Administration	Journalism	Sport Information, Commercial recreation, Travel and Tourism
Park and Recreation	Journalism	English	Sport Reporting, Travel and Tourism, Public Relations,
Park and Recreation	Environmental Studies	Biological Science or Geology	Park Interpretation, Fish and Wildlife, Park Administration, Conservation

Park and Recreation	Public Policy Leadership	Economics	Park and Recreation Administration, Governmental Recreation,
Park and Recreation	International Studies	Spanish (or other modern language)	International recreation and tourism
Park and Recreation	Southern Studies	Environmental Studies	Park Interpretation, National Park Service
Park and Recreation	Military Science and Leadership	Business Administration	Morale, Welfare and Recreation (military Rec)
Park and Recreation	Entrepreneurship	Business Administration	Commercial Recreation, Recreation Business Ownership
Park and Recreation	Sociology	Anthropology	Interpretation, Inner-city Recreation

Minor in Park and Recreation Management

The minor in Park and Recreation Management is ideal for students pursuing professions which require working with people during their leisure time and programming their recreation pursuits. The minor is especially suitable for students majoring in associated degrees that emphasize major components of human service delivery or that pursue the Bachelor of General Studies Degree. The nine elective hours allow each student to focus on coursework that has relevance to future employment opportunities when combined with a related major or minors.